RULES AND REGULATIONS.

WOONSOCKET:

S. S. FOSS, PRINTER, PATRIOT OFFICE, MAIN ST.
1869.

T. 1522

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

ARTICLE 1.—The Library limits shall include the residents within the following territory, viz: All of the Town of Woonsocket, and the people within the following described portion of the Town of Smithfield: Commencing at a point on the Blackstone River in said Smithfield, called “Mott’s Dam,” thence westerly to and including the residence of Noah A. Bryant, on the old Smithfield road (so called); thence westerly across said road to and including the residence of Edward Hotchkiss; thence north-westerly in a direct line to the intersection of the said old Smithfield road with the road leading from Union Village (so called), to the village of Blackstone, Mass; thence northerly with said last mentioned road to the Massachusetts State line; thence easterly to the boundary line of Woonsocket.

Persons not resident within the above prescribed limits, may, nevertheless, from time to time, at the discretion of the Board of Trustees, be admitted to a participation of the advantages to be derived from the use of the Library, the attendance of Lectures, or such other means of information as may be adopted by the Institute.

ARTICLE 2.—The Library shall be open on Tuesday and Saturday of each week, from 2 till 9 o’clock, P. M., excepting upon holidays.

ARTICLE 3.—All inhabitants of the above described Library limits, above the age of fourteen years, of respectable character, and of such orderly conduct and condition as not to interfere with the occupations and comforts of others, shall have free access to the Library Room during the regular hours.

ARTICLE 4.—The following persons shall be entitled to borrow Books from the Library for home use, upon signing a promise to obey its Rules and Regulations. All inhabitants of Woonsocket and Smithfield, as aforesaid, above the age of fourteen years, who shall have signed the Application Card, and obtained the signatures thereon, of two responsible citizens, who shall be satisfactory to the Trustees as Guarantors. Any other inhabitant within the Library limits, depositing such sum for the volume asked for, if permitted to circulate (or for the set to which it may belong), as the Librarian may require, for which a receipt will be given; which sum shall be repaid, whenever the book and receipt are returned, after any fines incurred for injury to the book or its improper detention have been deducted.

ARTICLE 5.—An alphabetical list of all persons entering their names for the purpose of using the Library shall be kept in the Library; the residence of each individual being inserted against the name.

ARTICLE 6.—Encyclopædias, Dictionaries, and other books needed for reference in the Library building; books not easily to be replaced, in consequence of their rarity or value; books expressly given for reference only; and books deemed by the Trustees to be unsuited for general circulation; also unbound periodicals—shall be used only in the Library Room, except by written permission of the Trustees.

ARTICLE 7.—No person shall have, for home use, more than two volumes at a time; and no book shall be retained by the person borrowing it more than fourteen days; provided, always, that any book may be borrowed twice by the same person, but not more than twice, until it shall have been returned to the Library, and shall have remained there at least one full Library day.

ARTICLE 8.—Any person detaining a volume longer than the regulations permit, shall be find two cents for each day of detention,—the Librarian being charged with the collection of these and all other dues to the Library: and no remission of any fine shall be made except by the Trustees.

ARTICLE 9.—Any book detained one week beyond the time limited by these regulations, shall be sent for by the Librarian, and the additional penalty of twenty-five cents shall be collected from every delinquent; and no book shall be lent to any person who has fines and penalties remaining unsettled after three weeks from the date of any loan.

ARTICLE 10.—No person who shall have borrowed a book from the Library shall lend it to any one not a member of the same household.

ARTICLE 11.—All injuries to books beyond a reasonable wear, and all losses, shall be made good to the satisfaction of the Librarian, by the person liable; every book detained above three months being held to be lost.

ARTICLE 12.—No books shall be taken from the shelves in any part of the Library by any person not employed in the service of the Library.

ARTICLE 13.—All conversation and conduct inconsistent with the quiet and orderly use of the Library Room are strictly prohibited.

ARTICLE 14.—Any person abusing the privileges of the Library, by unbecoming conduct, or by the violation of any of the Regulations, by intentional defacement of a Book by writing in it, or in any other way, shall be prohibited the use of the Library until permission is obtained of the Trustees; and may be, by them, excluded from the Library for a time, or permanently, according to the nature and degree of the delinquency or default; but in case of any gross offence, the Librarian shall act summarily in the matter, and cause the offender to be at once excluded from the building, reporting the case to the Trustees as soon as possible, in writing, for their final decision.

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF THE
CITY OF BOSTON.

ABBREVIATED REGULATIONS.

One volume can be had at a time, in home use, from the Lower Hall, and one from the Bates Hall.

Books can be kept out 14 days, and renewed once, if application for renewal is made before the fourteen days elapse.

A fine of 2 cents for each volume will be incurred for each day a book is detained more than 14 days, and no book can be obtained until all fines are settled.

Any book detained more than a week beyond the time limited, will be sent for at the expense of the delinquent.

No book is to be lent out of the household of the borrower; nor is it to be kept by transfers in one household more than one month, and it must remain in the library one week before it can be again drawn in the same household.

The Library hours for the delivery and return of books are from 9 o'clock, A. M., to 8 o'clock, P. M., in the Lower Hall; and from 9 o'clock, A. M., until 6 o'clock, P. M., from October to March, and until 7 o'clock, from April to September, in the Bates Hall.

Every book must, under penalty of one dollar, be returned to the Library at such times as shall be publicly announced.

The card must be presented whenever a book is returned. For renewing a book, a new slip giving the shelf numbers of the book must be made, and the card must be presented with the slip.
